Eagles, Grays in Pair At Ebbets Field

One week from today the Negro stars move into Ebbets Field for the doubleheader between the Homestead Grays and the Newark Eagles. Some day four of them may visit the Dodgers' park as members of the big league Pittsburgh Pirates.

Ebbets Field used to be the Summer address of Leon Day and Ed Stone of the Eagles. That was when the Newark club was the Brooklyn Eagles. Day is the right-handed-pitching ace. He is a jack-of-all-trades of baseball. This season he has done a chore in the outfield, another at second base, used as a pinch hitter and is the fastest man on the team.
